

CCLMP

The C Clamp is a holding device fabricated from high strength steel that is used in snap tie forming applications that is designed to ensure proper load distribution when installed correctly. C Clamps work in conjunction with Long End Snap Ties, double horizontal walers and double vertical strongbacks. The C Clamp Body is set against the outer double vertical strongbacks and the face of the clamp rotates across the tie just inside the tie head drawing up all of the form components until snug.

Part Number	CCLMP
Weight Per Piece (lbs)	1.1
Carton Quantity	75